

Project title:

“Growth of the competitiveness and increasing Bowil Biotech’s influencing through international sales markets entry due to realization of investing in the new biomaterial production for the manufacture of implants as a result of our own research and development activities”, under the Regional Operational Program of the Pomeranian Voivodeship for 2014-2020, Priority 02. Enterprises, Measure 02.02. Profiled Investments, Sub-measure 02.02.01. Profiled Investments - grant support co-financed from the European Regional Development Fund

Funding agreement No.:

RPPM.02.02.01-22-0122/16-00

Project aim:

The project aim is to make an investment in tangible assets related to the modernization of the production line

Planned effects:

Launching the production of a new biomaterial used for the production of implants

Project value:

- Total project cost: 2 421 000,75 PLN
- Total eligible project costs: 1 999 025,00 PLN
- Contribution of European Funds: 999 312,60 PLN
- Own contribution: 999 712,40 PLN